LETTER DATED 20 NOVEMBER 1999 FROM THE CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES A.I. OF THE PERMANENT MISSION OF YUGOSLAVIA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

I have been instructed by my Government to lodge the strongest protest over the six new regulations in various fields of civil administration introduced recently by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations in Kosovo and Metohija, the autonomous province of the Yugoslav constituent Republic of Serbia: namely, regulation No. 1999/16 on the Establishment of the Central Fiscal Authority of Kosovo and other related matters; regulation No. 1999/17 on the Approval of the Kosovo Consolidated Budget and Authorizing Expenditures for the period from 1 September to 31 December 1999; regulation No. 1999/19 on the Prohibition of Casino-Type Gambling in Kosovo; regulation No. 1999/20 on the Banking and Payments Authority in Kosovo; regulation No. 1999/21 on Bank Licensing, Supervision and Regulation; and regulation No. 1999/23 on the Establishment of the Housing and Property Directorate and the Housing and Property Claims Commission.

By and large, the said regulations regulate the banking and financial system in Kosovo and Metohija in a way that separates the southern Serbian province increasingly from the relevant system in force in Serbia and Yugoslavia. Considering that the new regulations have been introduced without consultation with the Serbian and Yugoslav authorities, that they rescind unjustifiably the relevant rules and regulations in Serbia and Yugoslavia and that their introduction constitutes a flagrant violation of Security Council resolution 1244 (1999) and relevant documents, the regulations will be considered null and void.

I should be grateful if you would have the present letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.

Statement on the presidential elections in Tajikistan issued on 16 November 1999 by the Presidency of the European Union on behalf of the European Union

The European Union is deeply concerned about the undemocratic events and procedures in connection with the presidential elections in Tajikistan. It considers that the election is not compatible with democratic principles and values. The European Union does not see any progress in the democratic development of Tajikistan if basic rules of civil society are not respected but are even violated.

The European Union urges, in particular, the Government of Tajikistan to adopt and implement democratic procedures and rules for the upcoming parliamentary elections to ensure that the elections are fully free and fair. It is in the interest of the Tajik people that the necessary conditions are created for all political forces of the country to participate, on an equal basis, in preparing and conducting the forthcoming parliamentary elections according to the principles of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe.

The European Union strongly supports the peace process in Tajikistan and links the future development of contractual relations between the European Union and Tajikistan to it. Only the normalization of society can enable Tajikistan to implement international commitments. Moreover, the peace process alone can ensure that the security situation continues to improve and so facilitate the provision of international assistance.

The Central and Eastern European countries associated with the European Union, the associated countries Cyprus and Malta, and the European Free Trade Association countries, Iceland and Liechtenstein, members of the European Economic Area, align themselves with the present statement.
